VINIFICATION

The handpicked grapes are rigorously selected before being trodden by foot in temperature controlled granite lagares over a period of 10 days. During the next 17 months, the malolactic fermentation and aging of the wine takes place in French oak barrels. Bottled in June 2014.

TASTING NOTES

Very deep in colour. Great expression with elegant notes of black fruit and violet flowers, well integrated with hints of oak. Very intense, fresh and balanced mouthfeel. Long finish. Wine to keep for 10 to 15 years.

PRODUCTION
